Dear SIG8 Members,

This newsletter includes important information concerning: the introduction of a new SIG Coordinator and a new JURE Coordinator, the next ICM conference and summer school in Dresden, and the awards announced at EARLI 2021:

- (1) New SIG8 Coordinator: Hanna Gaspard became our new SIG8 Coordinator at our members meeting at EARLI 2021, and she will be serving in this role for the next four years (2021-2025). Hanna Gaspard will be working together with Hanna Järvenoja for the next two years until Hanna J. completes her term as coordinator of our SIG in 2023. Fani Lauermann stepped down after completing her four-year term as coordinator. Thank you Fani for your excellent service to our SIG!
- (2) New SIG8 JURE coordinators: Juliane Schlesier was elected as our new SIG8 JURE Coordinator. She will be working together with Julia Morinaj who already started to work in this role two years ago. Juliane will be replacing Martin Daumiller, who stepped down after serving as a JURE Coordinator for two years. Thank you, Martin, for your outstanding service and representation of our junior members, and welcome, Juliane, to our team!
- (3) CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS ICM 2022 in Dresden: The call for submissions for the ICM 2022 in Dresden is now open. The deadline for submissions is January 20th, 2022. The conference will be held as a hybrid conference from August 24th to August 26th, including a joint day with SIG16 on August 26th. We welcome resubmissions of proposals accepted for the ICM 2020 conference as well as new submissions. - (4) Summer School ICM 2022 in Dresden: We are continuing our great tradition of supporting young researchers by offering a summer school prior to the conference. The Joint Summer School of SIG 8 and SIG 16 will take place from August 22nd to August 23rd in a venue near/in Dresden, preceding the ICM. More information can be found here: <https://sig8meetssig16-dresden.de/summer-school-2/>
- (5) 2020 SIG8 Lifetime Achievement Recognition: In light of her contributions to our scientific community and to our SIG, Dr. Ruth Butler received the SIG8 Lifetime Achievement Recognition 2020. This award is usually announced at the ICM conference, but because of the postponed conference, it was given to Ruth at this year's EARLI conference. She was nominated by Stuart Karabenick, and 11 more proponents.

Warmest congratulations, Ruth!

- (6) 2021 SIG8 Student Research Excellence Recognition: One excellent young researcher was recognized at the SIG8 members meeting at EARLI 2021, for her outstanding first-authored paper presented at the conference, based on ratings received by an international selection committee of long-term SIG8 members. Warm congratulations to Daria Benden (TU Dortmund University) for the recognition of her paper on "Short-Term Relations Between Students' Situated Expectancies and Task Values in the Math Domain". We also congratulate her co-author Fani Lauermann.
- (7) Please check your SIG8 membership via the EARLI.org Dashboard: Please make sure to renew your SIG8 membership (and not just your EARLI membership) for 2022 via the EARLI.org Dashboard ("My recent orders" "add new membership" add SIG-08 membership for an 8 EUR fee). This will enable you to continue to receive our newsletters. Thank you for your continued support and active involvement with the SIG!
